

PREPARING FOR COURT

How do I make an application to the Family Court?

Bath Family Law prepare your court application with you, collecting all the information and completing the application along with any supporting documents and evidence required by the court. The support includes reading, understanding, and storing all court correspondence and holding regular update meetings in a private and confidential space. Keeping you included and informed on the progress is an important step toward resolution of your case and your emotional recovery.

Are court applications complex?

Court applications can be complex, Bath Family Law prepare your court application with you, collecting all the information and completing the application along with any supporting documents and evidence required by the court. The support includes reading, understanding and storing all court correspondence and holding regular update meetings in a private and confidential space. Keeping you included and informed on the progress is an important step toward resolution of your case and your emotional recovery.

What happens after the application?

After the court application is placed, following the courts response and any court directive, the support given by Bath Family Law includes all aspects of document management and timeline management. The preparation of your position statement and the evidence are vital to ensuring the courts full understanding of the matter and the outcome sought. Working with you, you will receive support with all aspects of document management and the creation of the statements and evidence that supports a favourable outcome for your family.

Together We Are Strong

Scan the QR code for more information:

 01225 941222

 team@bathfamilylaw.co.uk

 bathfamilylaw.co.uk